THE AGE

Matthew and Madafferi: Opposition Leader Matthew Guy dined with alleged mobster

“Mr Madafferi was “a known associate of prominent criminal entities and persons who have a history of significant criminal conduct that includes money laundering and drug trafficking”.

“Tony Madafferi and Mr Lamattina were involved in a 2006 donations scandal in which the planned deportation of Mr Madafferi’s brother, Francesco, a Mafia boss, was overturned after a long campaign of lobbying and donating to federal Liberal politicians. Francesco, a violent criminal and drug trafficker, was later jailed in connection to Australia’s biggest ecstasy importation.”

When they’re not ripping the guts out of education and health funding, Liberal Party polities spend most of their tax-payer funded time trying to destroy the union movement and attacking the CFMEU. Now it appears, when they knock off at the end of a long day of union-bashing, they head out to expensive restaurants to solicit donations from alleged mafia figures.

Tens of millions of taxpayer dollars were spent on a failed Royal Commission into supposed union corruption. All it proved was that the CFMEU had nothing to do with the crooks and scumbags that they wheeled out to give evidence.

All the while, reports keep coming of senior members of the Liberal party meeting with senior figures of the underworld. The latest revelation is that the Victorian Opposition Leader, Matthew Guy has tried to cover up a meeting with alleged mafia figure Tony Madafferi.

Several bottles of top-shelf Grange red wine at the Lobster Cave in Beaumaris later, and it turns out Matthew “Wise Guy” is struggling to get his lies straight.

You gotta ask: who are the real crooks?!

PROTECT YOUR PAY, DEFEND YOUR EBA!

Bosses may try to take advantage of the confusion around the Building Code by claiming your EBA needs to be ‘Code Compliant’. Don’t be fooled.

Don’t let your boss con you into changing the EBA without the Union.

Your EBA is legally certified. Don’t let the bosses slash your wages and conditions under the cover of Turnbull’s political agenda.
